

one|student

Starting the Conversation

CREATING A CONSENT CULTURE ON CAMPUS

Becca Tieder, Founder of @onestudentorg, @youbeccabelieve

Why We Are Here

- What is One Student? History and Context.
- To learn how to use the One Student tools to create a consent culture.
- To hear what you want us to do next!

Creating a space for conversations,
communication and social change.

What conversations do
you want/need to have?

OneStudent.org
: what have you done for me lately?

Some Topics

Addressed: Bystander Intervention,
Respect/Dignity, Rape
Culture, Alcohol,
Supporting Survivors, Consent.

- Posters
 - Pledge
 - One-Pagers
 - Meme's
 - Video Campaigns
 - Programs
 - Production Fellowship
 - YATO Ambassador Program
 - No Woman Left Behind
 - Collegiate Consortium
 - Parents' Program
 - Editorial Board
-
- A teal-colored decorative footer with a white zigzag cutout on the left side, spanning the bottom of the page.

What conversations do
you want/need to have?

How do you know when you have consent?

“That is How You Will Know When You Have Consent”, “One Ohio”

written by @AshleeHaze

Consent means that all parties involved give permission for each sex act and that all parties are able to consent without coercion or diminished mental capacity.

When I say yes please
instead of maybe.
When I am sure
without the alcohol.
When you ask me
and give me time
to consider the question.

*That's how you'll know
when you have consent.*

@ashleehaze

one|student
onestudent.org

CREATING A
CONSENT CULTURE
ACROSS OHIO

Ohio | Department of Higher Education
Changing Campus Culture Initiative

How do you know you have consent when your partner has been drinking?

*Having a drink before hooking up.
Having a drink to feel comfortable hooking up.*

Big difference.

one|student
onestudent.org

CREATING A CONSENT CULTURE ACROSS OHIO

Ohio | Department of Higher Education
Changing Campus Culture Initiative

“The Thirst Trap” written by @adanbeane

Each step of the way and
during each encounter, consent must be present.

A decorative orange geometric shape at the bottom of the slide, consisting of a solid orange bar with a white triangular cutout on the left side.

It is never the fault of someone who chooses to drink if they are sexually assaulted.

Which is easier and why:
having sex with someone
or talking about the experience?

Bystander Intervention.
Love it? Hate it?
What are the challenges?

"See Me When I Need Your Help written by @youbeccabelieve & @kellyraecam

Issues with reporting?

Issues with community response?

What we think vs. what we do or say.

If a person is raped by someone they know,
is it worse than being raped by a stranger? Why or why not?

Survivors of acquaintance rape and stranger rape can have the same range of feelings.

"Melt" written by @CarolineRothstein

Why are we less likely to believe someone who says they were assaulted by a friend versus a stranger?

Working with students to get their message out to the world.

As One Student, I Will:

- I will use respectful language when talking to or about my partner(s), and when talking about sex and relationships, in general.
- I will respect my partner's boundaries (or anyone I have sexual contact with) and will expect my partner(s) to respect mine.
- I will practice consent, every. single. time.
- I understand that a person cannot consent to sex if they're intoxicated to the point of impairment. If an individual is not clearly of sound mind (e.g., overly intoxicated or overly tired), consent may not be valid. I will make sure my friends understand this, too.
- If someone tells me they've been sexually assaulted, I will believe them.

Have the difficult conversations.
Removing the shame and stigma from sex
and creating a consent culture.

OneStudent.org:
what have you done
for me lately?

What should we do next?

One sexual assault is too many and One Student can make a difference.

Next steps?

Let's Talk!

Becca:

becca@onestudent.org

@youbeccabelieve

Thank you.